

Ladies' Tailor Suits ..and Furs..

We strongly recommend early buying on the above lines. The assortment is better now than it will be and prices are lower than they will be later.

Additionally, if you want your tailor suit made-to-order it can be done now in much shorter time than later when the shops get crowded.

COLOR SCHEME

To Push the Baptist Sunday School for Twelve Weeks.

The Baptist Sunday School has inaugurated what is known as a "Sunday School Revival." The Sunday School, which numbered 210 Sunday, has been divided into two equal parts, which will adopt blue and red as their respective colors and work for new members for the next twelve weeks.

There will be red and blue buttons to distinguish the sides, and prizes will be offered for the side winning and for the most successful individual workers in securing new scholars. The Revival will conclude with a big Christmas entertainment.

Each of the respective sides will have a captain and several lieutenants. The superintendent and other officers are to remain neutral. The contest started Sunday, with each side having a membership of 100.

QUIET WEDDING

BOTH SIDES READY

And Jim Will Anderson Case Goes to Trial.

First Batch of Indictments Returned by Grand Jury Saturday—Two for Murder.

The case of Jim Will Anderson, under an indictment charging him with shooting from ambush at non-union miners during the Empire mining troubles, was called yesterday. Both sides announced ready and the work of getting up a jury was in progress when we went to press. Only four men were secured from the regular panel and a special venire of forty were summoned from which to select the other eight jurors.

The grand jury returned its first batch of bills Saturday and will continue in session all this week. An indictment was returned against James Grant, charging him with the murder of Harrison Hamby. Albert Bishop, col., charged with the murder of Edmund White, col., at a barbecue near Noah Spring, was also indicted. Six indictments were found against Buck Thomas, col. Thomas was recently arrested on a charge of stealing goods from the L. & N. railroad depot here. He was out on bond, but was rearrested after the bills were found against him. Three of the indictments charge grand larceny and the other three petit larceny.

The jury in the case of the Commonwealth against Blaine Williams and Fierce Ware, under indictment for the murder of John Tandy at a colored festival near Pembroke about a year ago, returned a verdict of acquittal Saturday morning. Only two days were consumed in the trial of the case, night sessions being held. Dangerfield Ware, a brother of Fierce, was convicted of the same offense and sentenced to life imprisonment. Another brother, Warfield, who was out on bond, died several months ago. Journey Ware, another of the Ware brothers, was acquitted at the June term. Dangerfield Ware took an appeal in his case and is still in jail here.

FORMER MATRON

Of Western Kentucky Asylum Dies in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Martha Finn, mother of Mr. Geo. W. Collins, of this city, died last Tuesday night at her home in Cincinnati. She had been in bad health for several months, but the immediate cause of her death was dropsy. Mr. Collins had just returned from her bedside when he was informed of her death. She was 77 years old and was matron at the Western Asylum here during a portion of the late Dr. Rodman's administration.

GREAT RAPIDITY

In Track Laying All Along T. C. Line.

Through Trains Promised Between Hopkinsville and Nashville by Oct. 20.

Two weeks ago when General Manager Clarke announced that trains would be running between Hopkinsville and Nashville, on the T. C. railroad, the statement was not taken seriously. But two weeks of work has greatly changed the outlook and the announcement now that an extension of five days is all that is asked is backed by a very different state of affairs.

To begin with, the track from this end had been laid seven miles Saturday night, to a point on the Wheeler farm. Six miles were laid last week and at this rate Oak Grove will be reached in nine more working days. But the road is advancing from the other end and it is probable that the two ends will meet this side of Oak Grove. At any rate the whole line to Clarksville will be laid by the 15th. The cut beyond Oak Grove is getting along rapidly and will not delay much. It is officially announced from Nashville that the bridge over the Cumberland river below Nashville will be completed so that trains may be operated between Nashville and Clarksville by Oct. 20.

This being true and making all necessary allowances for accidents and for bad weather, we may confidently expect to see through trains running from here to Nashville by November 1.

The bridge over the Canton pike near this city is now up and the approaches re-graded. As soon as the elevated roadbed is metaled the pike will be ready for travel over the crossing.

At the Cox's mill crossing, a temporary bridge spans the pike, which will later be replaced by a permanent one.

WATCH NEXT ISSUE

For More About the Big Tennessee Central Edition.

Further details of the Kentuckian's Big Tennessee Central Railroad Pictorial edition to be issued in about 60 days, will be given in the next issue. Our merchants and professional men will find Mr. W. H. Bickers, the special editor of this big edition, a genial and agreeable young gentleman, who has had much experience in this class of work. He has issued trade editions in many cities and his plan is one that proves most attractive to advertisers. Watch Friday's paper for another announcement and in the meantime don't wait, but take space at once to get choice position.

SIX SKIRMISHES.

Kentucky Boys Do Not Take "War" Seriously.

Governors Beckham and Durbin Were Guests at West Point On Sunday—the Count.

West Point, Ky., Oct. 5.—Saturday's maneuvers consisted of six skirmishes, in each of which the militia regiments participated. It developed two little conflicts, one between the Eighth Ohio against two troops of the Eighth cavalry, and the other between the First Indiana and regular cavalry which were regarded as gems by military experts. The skirmish between the Second Kentucky and two more troops of the Eighth cavalry was not satisfactory. The Kentucky regiment was slow, the cavalry videttes riding far ahead precipitated the affair. The militia boys did not seem to take to the business seriously.

Camp Young had two governors as guests Sunday. Gov. Durbin, of Indiana, arrive here at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon and Gov. Beckham yesterday. The two distinguished guests were royally entertained while in camp. Gov. Beckham had headquarters near those of Gen. Murray. Gov. Durbin near Brig. Gen. McKee.

Private Fred Stone, of Battery C, Louisville, has disappeared and no one can tell where he has gone. It is believed that he tired of camp life and has returned to Louisville, but this cannot be determined. He will be arrested when found and brought back here for trial by the summary court.

The official count shows 9,269 men in camp to-day, divided into 657 officers and 8,612 men.

ANOTHER BARN

Full of Fine Tobacco Destroyed by Fire

A tobacco barn belonging to Mr. J. R. West, near Laytonsville, containing the product of eight acres of the weed, was destroyed by fire. The building was a new one and Mr. West's loss on barn and its contents is probably $750. The bulk of his crop was in another barn, which was saved. The flames were caused by sparks while the process of curing was going on.

West Union Meeting.

Rev. I. N. Strother will begin a protracted meeting at West Union church, Gracey, next Sunday. He will be assisted in the meeting by the Rev. T. T. Thompson, of Memphis, Tenn.

BELKNAP AND OWENS

Talk For Republican State Ticket Saturday.

Prof. Livingston McCartney Also Speaks at the Tabernacle.

The Republicans had their first campaign speaking Saturday and three speeches were made.

Col. Morris B. Belknap, the nominee for governor, spoke at the court house at 11 o'clock to a crowded house, a number of ladies being present.

Col. Belknap is not a good speaker, but he talks entertainingly as a business man and had no difficulty in holding his crowd. He deals in no personal abuse, and his speech is free from any of the objectionable features that usually characterize the efforts of the Republican spellbinders.

Col. Belknap concluded at noon and left at once for Fairview, where he briefly addressed the reunion of Confederate veterans and went on to Elkton.

In the afternoon Maj. W. C. Owens and Prof. L. McCartney spoke at Union Tabernacle to a crowd of about 1,000 or 1,200 people. Mr. McCartney spoke first for nearly an hour and Maj. Owens followed with his usual speech of an hour and a half. There was much of bitterness and severe criticism in his speech, but a good deal that he said made a deep impression and he was frequently applauded by Democrats. Towards the end of his speech he destroyed any possible good impressions he may have made on Democrats by a defense of Caleb Powers, and by an attack on the juries that have three times convicted him of complicity in Goebel's murder.

LUNATIC ESCAPES

From Asylum and is Captured Near Cerulean.

An inmate of the Western Asylum named Cummings, who was sent here from Graves county for treatment some months ago, escaped from the institution Friday. He was captured at Cerulean Spring Saturday morning and brought back here in the afternoon.

WALLONIA MEETING

Resulted in Ten Additions to the Church.

The meeting at the Christian church at Wallonia, held by Elder J. W. Mitchell, of this city, closed last Thursday night. There were ten additions to the church, and the series of meetings resulted in much good to that community.
